

Dear Parent:

Your child has been invited to the Virginia Tech Community Literacy Corps Reading Day at Virginia Tech on Monday, February 26, 2007. Every year the Literacy Corps puts together a scrapbook, several bulletin boards at Virginia Tech, and posts pictures of tutors and children on the Literacy Corps webpage, which is available at: <http://www.literacycorps.org.vt.edu/>.

We would like to take pictures of your child, their classmates, other elementary school students and Virginia Tech volunteers and tutors to use in one of the ways listed above. We need your permission to include your child's picture in these projects. Please indicate your preference below. Each child at Reading Day will be issued a sticker, with the color indicating whether permission has been granted or not. Should you have any questions, please contact Steven Mason or Jim Bell, Coordinators for the Virginia Tech Community Literacy Corps, at 540-231-1474 or your child's teacher.

Thank you!
